

Keith W. Hein

Keith W. Hein graduated from Iowa State University in 1957 with Bachelor's Degree in Agronomy and Economics. He was employed by the US Department of Agriculture doing soil mapping in Southwestern Minnesota. Beginning in 1960 Keith began a career with Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company. He earned his Chartered Life Underwriter (CLU) and Chartered Financial Consultant (ChFC). Keith also earned his Certified Financial Planner's designation. Keith became involved in employee benefits and consulting including administration of employee benefit plans. In 1972 along with Gil Theobald formed an employee benefits company (Hein, Theobald & Associates, Inc). providing planning, consulting and employee benefits for many professionals and businesses.

Keith has also been member, President /Chairman of many local (Montevideo MN) organizations and boards over many years including Jaycees, Chamber of Commerce, Church groups, Kiwanis, Montevideo Industrial Development Corporation, Montevideo Community Development Corporation, Brookside Senior Living, City Planning Commission, Board of Zoning Adjustment, Life Underwriters Association, Region 12 President of the MN Life Underwriters Association, member of the American Society of CLU, International Board of Certified Financial Planners(IBCFP), International Association of Financial Planners(IAFP).

Keith was also involved in the start up of many organizations and companies such as local Habitat for Humanity, Montevideo Foundation, Heritage Haven and business entities. He now manages his business' and properties. He might be a considered a small town philanthropist.