

Alfred F. Hurley

Alfred F. Hurley is Professor of History at UNT;
President/Chancellor Emeritus; Brigadier General, USAF (Ret.)
MA and PhD, Princeton University. Publications:
Billy Mitchell: Crusader for Air Power (N.Y.: Franklin Watts, 1964; Bloomington: Indiana University Press, 1975)
Co-Editor, Air Power and Warfare (Washington, DC: GPO, 1979)
Contributor, Winged Shield, Winged Sword (Washington, DC: Air Force History Office, 1997)
Publisher, Air Power History (The journal of the Air Force Historical Foundation)

Military History Fields/Interests: U.S. and Modern European Military History; Military Aviation; Command and Commanders; Military Thought.

