

Mark Hurley

Mark Hurley, a UNT alumnus, is the son of Dr. Alfred F. Hurley, UNT president emeritus and founder of UNT's annual Military History Seminar. Mr. Mark Hurley is the co-founder of Fiduciary Network in Dallas. Fiduciary Network provides long term, passive capital to fee-only wealth management firms.

Previously, he was the chairman and CEO of Undiscovered Managers, a mutual fund company he founded and sold to J.P. Morgan Chase in 2003.

He was an officer in the United States Army from 1980 to 1985. Mr. Hurley is a graduate of the United States Military Academy at West Point and received an M.B.A. from the Stanford Graduate School of Business.

