

Barry L. Brown

CAPT, SC, USN (Ret)

Barry L. Brown is a native of Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Shortly after college, he began his banking career in Houston, Texas in 1982. Over the past 36 years, he has gained expertise in team building, relationship building, and market expansion with extensive experience in budget management, financial reporting, and credit structure. He currently serves as CEO of the Plano market for Citizens Bank, a 70-year old family owned community banking organization headquartered in Kilgore, Texas.

In addition to a long banking career, he served 29 years in the United States Navy Reserve, retiring in 2016 at the rank of Captain. He is a veteran of Desert Shield/Desert Storm, Operation Iraqi Freedom and Operation Enduring Freedom. His Navy career in logistics provided opportunities to work in global supply chain processes, planning and execution of multiple location missions across vast geographies. He has expertise in procurement and contracting on large scale projects from basic subsistence supplies to major weapons systems.

Barry has served on multiple and varied boards of directors and advisory boards. He currently serves as Chairman of the Board of the Southeastern Louisiana University Foundation, overseeing the endowment of his alma mater. He is immediate past chairman of the City of McKinney's Armed Forces Memorial Board and sits on the current Board of Directors of the Navy League of the United States, Dallas Council. He serves as a deacon at Prestonwood Baptist Church in Plano, Texas.

