

Brendan Law

Captain Brendan Law is originally from Alamogordo, NM and received his commission as a Second Lieutenant from New Mexico State University Army ROTC and a B.A. in History in 2011. After attending the Signal Basic Officer Leadership Course at Fort Gordon, Georgia, 2LT Law was stationed at Fort Bragg, NC and assigned to the 82nd Airborne Division. While stationed at Fort Bragg, 2LT Law served as a platoon leader and executive officer in the 508th BSTB. In November 2014, 1LT Law was selected to serve as the BDE S6 during the deactivation of 4BCT IAW the Army's BCT 2020 transformation order.

In May 2015, 1LT Law was transferred to Fort Jackson and served as the Executive Officer for Alpha Company, 3rd Battalion, 13th INF REG until he was promoted to Captain. After he was promoted, CPT Law served as the Company Commander for C Co, 3-13th INF REG. In August 2017, CPT Law attended the Signal Captain's Career Course and was transferred to the 44th Expeditionary Signal Battalion stationed in Grafenwoehr, Germany. CPT Law assumed command of B/44th ESB in Jun 2017 and remained in command until May 2019. CPT Law is currently assigned to the U.S. Army Student Detachment with duty at the University of North Texas pursuing his M.A. in Military History. Upon completion, CPT Law will serve a utilization tour at the United States Military Academy as an Assistant Professor.

CPT Law's awards and decorations include: Meritorious Service Medal (2), Army Commendation Medal, Army Achievement Medal, and the Basic Parachutist Badge.

He is married to Ellisen Law and has one son, Charles Law.

