

Lynne A. Parkhurst

Lynne is a retired attorney, having served as a corporate/securities attorney with the law firm Chamberlain Hrdlicka in Houston, Texas, and as Senior Counsel with Maxus Energy Corporation (formerly known as Diamond Shamrock Corporation), in Dallas, Texas. She graduated from Southern Methodist University School of Law in 1981 where she held the position of editor of the law review.

Both before and following retirement, Lynne has served on the boards of directors of various non-profit organizations, including The Dallas Opera and The Sjogren's Foundation. She has also served as a docent at The Huntington Library, Art Museum and Botanical Gardens, in San Marino, California, and The Gamble House, a National Historic Landmark in Pasadena, California. She is currently a docent at the Dallas Museum of Art. She also owns and manages commercial/industrial property in Dallas, Texas.

