

2013
TEXAS HISTORY
SYMPOSIUM
“50 YEARS SINCE THE ASSASSINATION OF JOHN F. KENNEDY”

Dr. James Giglio
Professor Emeritus at Southwest
Missouri State University and Author of *The Presidency of John F.
Kennedy* and John F. Kennedy: A Bibliography

Mr. James Leavelle
Former Dallas Texas homicide detective. Mr Leavelle was the first to interrogate Lee Harvey Oswald
and was escorting
Oswald out of the Dallas police headquarters when Jack Ruby shot Oswald.

FREE for UNT
students

UNT faculty/staff $10.00

High/Middle School
Students $15.00

Adult Registration $25.00

Schedule of events:

9am- 10am Registration

10am -11:30am Dr. James Giglio
“My Odyssey with John F. Kennedy”
Q&A with Dr. Giglio

11:30am-1pm Lunch Randy White’s Barbeque
catered in the Lobby

1pm -2:30pm Mr. James Leavelle “Just doing my job: JFK and Lee Harvey Oswald”
Q&A with Mr. Leavelle

2:30pm-3pm Shop Vendors

University of North Texas History Department

.....
The 2013 Texas History Symposium will take place on April 20, 2013 in Wooten Hall Room 122

If you have any questions please contact Marie Watkins by email at HistoryEvents@unt.edu or by phone at (940) 565-3197